Dance Award of the Institut del Teatre 2017

Premi de Dansa Institut del Teatre 2017

The Institut del Teatre announces the call for one of the major dance awards of the European Union. An Award to help emerging choreographers and young dancers to produce a choreographic work, to make them know, and place them on the market offering them a space to perform.

Anyone interested in participating should submit a written and documented choreographic creation project with a 2 minutes video where part of the movement of the material used for the creation can be watched.

Among all the applying projects a selection will be made of up to four finalists who will receive financial support to do a 15 minutes choreography.

All finalist choreographies will be presented in a Dance Gala in the Mercat de les Flors on the first weekend of December. After the presentation the jury will announce the winning choreography of the Dance Award 2017 of the Institut del Teatre.

Gold dust rush. Eulàlia Bergadà. Dance Award of the Institut del Teatre 2015.

The overall Award amounts to more than €40,000

The Award consists of a grant for the production in order to develop a choreography of 50 minutes minimum. A grant for the creation and performance of the winning choreography.

The premiere of the winning choreography will take place during the Grec 2018 Festival de Barcelona.

Applications should be submitted at the General Register of the Institut del Teatre of Barcelona, located in Plaça Margarida Xirgu, s/n, 08004 Barcelona, from Monday to Friday from 9:00 to 14:00.
